

Chapter 1 : Calveria & Dodo

In the forest of March
Callaveria is crying. It's crying again
It will not stop. The day is over
Has arrived However, in her arms
She did not see a child. The last 300
Going down the years, she's a baby face
I saw it. They are all around her
He was surrounded by people. His
The heat of breathing is in your body
The bet was shaking.

Kallu Veria hills
Ask-

"Oh, the mountain, my
Have you seen Dodo? â€•
The mountain says, "I see Para Calveria, I'm immobile." What can I do to help?
Where have you seen Dodo? â€•

"Hey, peacock brother, where did my Dodo go?" â€•
"Why, I haven't seen him yet," the peacock replies

Tired, Calveria asked the wind again, "Wind, you're all in the dust."
Didn't you see Dodo? â€•

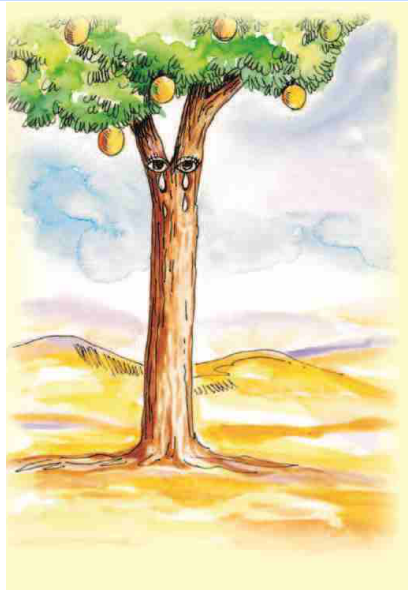

Unable to answer, the wind remained silent.
Callaveria is looking for Dodo. Dodo was coming. She was walking around eating and eating fruit
"She was released this morning; she's talked to her father and she's fine. At that time, Calvary was getting it
The joy of motherhood. "She is OK. "I've never been to her," Calveria thought
Didn't say? So why is she so proud? â€•

"Pawan Bhai, let me know a little bit about Dodo." I can sit on my lap He is
Wouldn't he have come and turned to me once? â€•

The wind has seen everything. She is a witness to everything that has happened before her eyes.
He has it
Protested. Matured with anger, he created a storm. But he gave up. Hey
Amaniya, who cares about the innocent human race? Who works with a conscience
Did not Jewel her from afar. Not in devotion, but in fear.

The wind blew, and Ali would tell Calveria everything he had been hiding for so long.
Kept from Calvary. Will reveal that secret story to her She has something to hide
No gain. How long will he live?

The wind continued to blow. Callaveria sat quietly, listening to the wind's own eyes
All events. If he hadn't told the story, it would have been true

Callaveria is crying

1504 Matssiha.

Talk about rubbing salt in my wounds - d'oh! Indian Ocean

The ship sailed in Love

He landed in Mauritius

Mr. White Blonde.

He was a businessman

Beusa. This is the first day

The dodos are the ones to him

Welcome to Mauritius

Reported. The next day the ship lined up. The master came, the thing came, came

The companion's companion is the cat and the cuckoo.

Even though Para's cousin, Dodo is incapable of flying. It will be fascinating to see that No But very calm. Slow down. Dodo are not small birds. Fifteen to twenty-five kg, will be
She weighs. Very simple in nature. It's so simple and straightforward that it's almost as if he's a fool
Can be said

Dodo was the first enemy to be welcomed.

The cat found Dodo's nest and went to the egg party. Dodo grinned at the cubs

Gone are the days. The dog barked at Dodo and died. Gentlemen for meat

Dodo began to hunt One Dodo killed 20 to 25 kg. Meat!

Hunting dodo is not a difficult task. Far from seeing the hunter,

Rather, he would look at the gunman like a fool. The gun rang, and Dodo was there

Happens. Even though one dodo tumbled from Palvit, the others still watered

Remains. They may not be aware of the art of fleeing and defending themselves. So from Mauritius

The Dodo dynasty became extinct, but in 195 years. Fifteen hundred

For the first time in a year, Dodo came to the fore. And the end of the world in 181

The human race has devastated the Dodo dynasty by hunting for Dodoti.

The wind choke. Still hugging Calveria, he said, "Whatever

It's time to dump her and move on. "

Dodo is no more today. In the last 300 years, he has disappeared from the Earth's chest forever
Is gone So what is Calveria's relationship with Dodo?

Why not? Callaveria is a large tree. He is also a resident of Mauritius. But 193

In Mauritius, only 13 species of cauliflower survived. And everyone was old

Over 30 years old. They were all dying. They are all about reproduction

Was disabled The fruits of Calvary are quite large. One and a half centimeters deep

Manj remains. So it is very difficult for this thick hole to burst and sprout.

Cloveria fruit is Dodo's favorite. He swallows the fruit whole. Her

In the stomach, the fruit softens. The soft thighs are full again

Dodo comes out in the feces. There is something about the sprouts coming out of the stage as the bark is soft

No problem.

Dodo would have been alive, had he swallowed the kale fruit, had he swallowed it again,

The genus Calveria grows and grows. But after the extinction of the Dodo dynasty

Calvary's sprouting was no longer possible. Earth 300 years ago

Callaveria is crying

The last Dodo bird died. For the past 300 years, Calveria has been in a natural state
No one knows if the tree has grapes.

Dodo died. We are responsible for her death. Callaveria is dying.
Indirectly, this is a human race. "It simply came to our notice then
Known. But we are helpless. The dodo who would have helped her offspring is still alive today
No We have drowned the Dodo dynasty, the Calverian dynasty is drowning.

Dodo is a bird. Calveria is a bull. Their relationship is non-sectarian Inseparable But us? We made them eaters, not their guardians.

Why did nature create dodo? Why did she give birth to Calveria? Dodo more
Callaveria's relationship was added or why?

None of us thought that. We are the best creatures in the world. Because we have
Where is the conscience? Shake our conscience!

Callaveria is in tears. Gumurigumuri he raises his arms - "Dodo, dodo mine, and Won't the ear come to me? â€•

That's right
